

University: Al-Mustaqbal University

Country: Iraq

Web Address: <https://uomus.edu.iq/en/default.aspx>

SDG1: No Poverty

1.3.5: Does your university as a body have schemes to support poor students from low or lower-middle income countries (e.g. offering free education, grants)?

of course yes

In Al-Mustaqbal University, there are many initiatives to support students from low-income countries in order to complete their studies within the college and support them not only on the standard of living, but also on a high level of reduction for them, which leads to contributing to reducing poverty in the countries (Syria, Jordan, and Egypt. We also have students from other countries)

Al-Mustaqbal University College offers you a golden opportunity... and that

Within the cooperation agreement with the American University of Science and Technology in Beirut.. via:

1. Free courses to strengthen the English language, basic calculator programs, and others required in the labor market and for postgraduate studies
2. Summer training programs
3. Completion of postgraduate studies for graduates of our college at the aforementioned university at reduced prices.

A delegation representing the American University will visit our college, and we would like to invite you to attend the college to clarify the details and answer your questions and inquiries.

Note that the university is recognized by the Ministry of Higher Education and has joint programs with reputable American universities. This is the link to their website:
