

ADJECTIVES and ADVERBS

ADJECTIVES

- We use adjectives to say more about a noun or a pronoun.
- They go before a noun or a pronoun.
- Adjectives have no plural forms.

- Adjectives go AFTER (not ~~BEFORE~~)

APPEAR, BE, BECOME, FEEL, GET,
LOOK, SEEM, SMELL, SOUND, TASTE

You look tired.

- Some -LY adjectives have no adverbs:
FRIENDLY, LIVELY; LOVELY; LONELY; SILLY.

in a friendly, silly, lovely ... way

SPELLING CHANGES

- -le changes to -ly terrible / terribly
- -y changes to -ily happy /happily
- -ic changes to -ically
automatic / automatically
- -ue changes to -uly true / truly
- -ll changes to -lly full / fully

ADVERBS

- We use adverbs to say more about a verb (adverb after a verb / adverb before an adjective / adverb before another adverb.)
- Adverbs tell you how, when, where or how much something happens.

- They usually go at the end of a sentence.
- Never between the verbs and its object
- We form most adverbs by adding -LY to the adjective.
- Irregular:

ADJECTIVES and ADVERBS

- EARLY, LATE, HARD, LOUD, FAST, DAILY, HIGH, LOW, RIGHT, WRONG, WEEKLY, MONTHLY can be adjectives and adverbs.

I always catch the early train.

Complete the sentences by choosing between the words given in brackets. (1)

- The train was very _____ (slow / slowly) and we arrived late.
- My cousin speaks English and German (fluent / fluently).
- You look _____ (angry / angrily). What's wrong?
- Don't drive so _____ (fast / fastly).
- She read the message _____ (quick / quickly)
- He's a _____ (good / well) guitar player.
- We saw lots of _____ (beautiful / beautifully)

Complete the sentences by choosing between the words given in brackets. (2)

- The whole team played very _____ (bad / badly) and they lost.
- National Geography is a _____ (monthly magazine / magazine monthly)
- I'm very tired because I slept _____ (bad / badly) last night.
- Can you speak _____ (slow / slowly), please?
- She's singing a very _____ (nice / nicely) song.